Occurrence analysis 2024-05-16 to 2024-06-20

#3. Calls of Interest:

1 – On February 23rd, White Butte members received a complaint from a parent that their daughter who is now 14 was being sexually exploited at the age of 12 two years ago. Distribution of child pornography has occurred over the internet. The victim was bullied and told to send nude photos/videos. The photos have been shared with many youth in the White Butte area. White Butte members have been investigating and are following up with the parents and the youth involved. File 2024-244632 refers.

2 – On May 15th, White Butte received a complaint from Regina Children’s Justice Centre about a concern surrounding a family from the RM of South Qu’Appelle. There was a concern expressed that the children and the spouse were possibly victims of numerous sexual offences and that there were also multiple firearms offences occurring. Members initiated a very large and complex investigation into the allegations. It should be noted for the children’s safety and security, names will not be used. A search warrant of two properties has been completed which supported multiple criminal code offences occurring. A 47 year old male from the RM of South Qu’Appelle has been charged with 14 different criminal code offences. Groupings include: firearms offences, child pornography and bestiality. Further search warrants are yet to be executed to determine the exact extent of the offences. File 2024-653923 refers.

3 – On May 17th, White Butte received a call to the Town of Balgonie. Members were responding to a complaint of a domestic disturbance at a residence. As a result of the investigation members arrested and charged 43 year old Bryan Best with aggravated assault, assault, assault on police officer x 2, uttering threats, mischief and obstruction. The Crown prosecutor has advised that may be seeking a higher elevated offence to the aggravated assault charge due to the circumstances. File 2024-668113 refers.

4- On May 29th, White Butte Detachment was called to the RM of Edenwold to a farm land location where a local farmer was being threatened and forced off of the lease land by band members from the Piapot First Nation. Investigation into the two different incidents resulted in two individuals being charged. 54 year old Sheri Kaiswatum has been charged with mischief, disobeying a court order, forcible confinement and assault causing bodily harm. 55 year old Claude Friday has been charged with disobeying a court order, mischief, assault with a weapon, uttering threats, forcible confinement and extortion. File 2024-732317 refers.

5- On June 1st and June 5th, White Butte Detachment completed two different impaired investigations in the detachment area. 19 year old Ashton Webster of Indian Head was charged with impaired driving and operation while over 80mg%. 44 year old Nicole Quinton-Sauer was charged with impaired driving and operation while over 80 mg%. File 2024-746542 and 2024-772585 refers.

6- On June 9th, White Butte Detachment was called to the Town of Pilot Butte of a father and son dispute at a residence. Members attended the scene to determined that a serious assault with a weapon had occurred. Members arrested a male at gunpoint. There were no further injuries. 35 year old Tyson Ellis was arrested and charged with assault on police officer, assault with a weapon, mischief and fail to comply with probation order under the criminal code. File 2024-790317 refers.

7- On June 24th, White Butte Detachment will be conducting a Treaty 4 flag raising ceremony at the detachment in Emerald Park at 11:00 am. School talks with 3 different classes of students has taken place. One at Henry Janzen school in Regina to youth from Ranch Ehrlo. One at Emerald Ridge Elementary School to youth from the grade 4 class. One at Ecole White City

Elementary School to the grade 6 class. There will be representatives from Ochapowace First Nation to help us to raise the flag. Please come and join us!
