Occurrence analysis 2024-02-15 to 2024-03-21

#3. Calls of Interest:

1 – On February 25th, White Butte received a call of vandalism in the Town of Pilot Butte. The complainant advised that their house was vandalised by someone that threw rocks and broke some windows. The complainant was worried that the same people could be responsible that broke in three weeks ago and pepper sprayed her dog. Members completed a thorough investigation and have determined that the persons responsible have some affiliation with the complainant’s child. Members are contemplating / probably will lay charges on a 19 year old person from Regina. File 2024-255112 refers.

2 – On February 26th , White Butte received a call on Highway # 1, near the Pense turn off of a male walking in the ditch near a vehicle that appeared suspicious. The male advised that his friend was intoxicated and the driver of their vehicle. Members attended to the scene and found the suspect vehicle and two males. Members conducted an impaired investigation. Subsequent to the investigation members charged 33 year old Brennan Airey of Moose Jaw with operation while impaired and operation while over 80mg% alcohol. File 2024-258895 refers.

3 – On March 14th , White Butte received a complaint from a resident in the White Butte Detachment area. They advised that they were contacted by a business called “Popmarket” who uses bitcoin and cryptocurrency. The complainant had already sent several thousand dollars and has now become suspicious as the company wants a few thousand more. Members continue to investigate. File 2024-336802 refers.

4 – On March 15th , White Butte Members were called to a semi rollover on Highway # 1, 2 miles East of Balgonie. Members attended the scene and determined that the semi was headed West and the driver was driving without due care and attention. Members charged 32 year old Guramrit Phagura with driving without due care and attention in under the Saskatchewan Traffic Safety Act. File 2024-339385 refers.

#4. RPCC Investigations. 1 failure to comply, 1 assault and 11 assistance files. The total for the reporting period is 13.

#5. Round table: Detachment Action Plan priorities are formalized and can be discussed.

#6. Next Meeting: April 18th , 2024 @ 7pm.
